FESTIVAL MANAGER HIRED FOR 2018 GOLDEN GATE FESTIVAL

Piedmont, California - The Golden Gate International Choral Festival has hired Stephanie Hartono O'Leary as festival manager. With a festival manager now onboard, planning for the 2018 festival begins in earnest with choir recruitment, venue planning, and program logistics.

The Golden Gate International Choral Festival will take place in the San Francisco East Bay from July 8 through July 14 in 2018. O'Leary is currently fielding inquiries from prospective participating choirs, sponsors, and vendors, and will be managing festival logistics in the months to come.

Since its founding in 1991, the Golden Gate Festival has attracted top-notch children's and youth choirs from all over the world to perform and compete. Choirs will display the breadth of their ability in four competing categories. Audiences will have the opportunity to attend the competition concerts and the spectacular opening and closing ceremonies.
